ABOUT SAXODRONE

Saxodrone is a brand-new solo act of ambient soundscapes, drone music, and free jazz. Using a small array of guitar pedals, the saxophone is transformed into an ensemble of evolving energies. Each improvisational performance is an ebullient display of color and control.

ABOUT JUSTIN

Justin is a performer, researcher, and developer currently living in Raleigh, North Carolina. They're always exploring how new technology can transform entertainment, education, and art.
